two out of town.

L. E. Nichoson, formerly a Saline boy, has sold his interest in the photographic business at Ypsilanti, and has gone on a tour with an operatic troupe as a musician. The trip will extend into the upper peninsula and not return until fall or winter.

Fred Gauntlett has rented a "bi"